Rising Demand

A strategic location, ideal for luxury and ultra-luxury villas

- Why is Humming Valley selling at ₹10,000 per sq ft?
- Why did Novotel choose Nandi Hills and not the airport?
- Where does Prestige command its highest price per sq ft in Bengaluru?
- Why did Prestige Park Line sell 80% in such a short time?
- Why is Brigade building a WTC in KIADB Phase 2, Devanahalli?
- Why is the state investing in tourism here?
- Why are Foxconn, Boeing and the ITIR coming here?
- Why are Doddaballapura plots selling out at ₹4,800 / sq ft, and new projects crowding into Gauribidanur?

Airport & employment

Kempegowda Airport, Foxconn, ITIR and KIADB parks: Bengaluru's fastest-growing job corridor.

Best-in-city infrastructure

STRR ring road, NH 44, Metro Blue Line and a ₹93 Cr ropeway.

A rare combination

A hill station, airport and commercial hub within 20 minutes, with the flexibility to live, holiday or rent.

Changing buyer needs

Space, privacy and a home close to nature, for weekends and rentals.

Limited supply

Few hill-view villa parcels remain; most nearby projects are sold out.

Income & resale upside

Short stays earn up to ₹30,000 per room a day; nearby resale villas trade above ₹25,000 per sq ft.

What are nearby projects selling at?

Nearby villas currently price at ₹5,600–₹35,000 per sq ft.
